Fall Festival of Leaves

Bainbridge, Ohio

*It's easy for anyone to see why Bainbridge has the right to hold a "Festival of the Leaves."
Y'all can enjoy it during the third weekend in October.*

YOU ARE AT HOME AT BRISTOL VILLAGE

One of the nation's finest retirement villages is located in Waverly, Ohio.

Residents of Bristol Village live in their own homes within this delightful retirement community. The village provides a wealth of activities for the residents! Whew, a visit to the facility could wear you out seeing all that is going on!

Limited assistance is available to the residents in their own homes, but should it be necessary for them to have further help in living, Bristol Village has a Continuum of Care Plan. Please visit the Bristol Village web page where this plan is explained in detail. www.bristolvillage.com (Just the help needed at each step along the way.) Of course many residents are able to spend the rest of their lives in their own Bristol Village home, but it is nice to know that further assistance is available if and when needed.

Everyone should know about Bristol Village!... (folks considering retirement themselves, as well as people concerned for their older loved ones.)

Dignity is the guideline by which Bristol Village operates.

BAINBRIDGE'S FALL FESTIVAL OF THE LEAVES OCTOBER 19,20 & 21

by Janny Brizius

By taking a look at our beautiful Mike Seely cover photo, you are actually seeing a story in itself. (See little Bainbridge surrounded by the vast array of Fall foliage.) Often when I am asked where I'm from, and I tell them "Bainbridge, Ohio", the reply is, "AHH, Yes! The Festival of the Leaves!"

Indeed the town's festival has put the town itself on the map, so to speak!

And rightly so. Bainbridge really knows how to put on a festival!

I can remember when Bainbridge tried out other festivals at different times of the year.

A springtime festival was especially well done, but the weather in the springtime being so uncertain was discouraging for them, and ultimately they settled for the Fall Festival of the Leaves, and indeed, taking a look at our cover, why not?

The festival is always held on the third full weekend of October. This year that makes it October 19, 20, 21. Well, the Queen's Pageant is actually on the 18th. If you like festivals, you will love the Fall Festival of the Leaves. And as you are coming or going, why not stop in and see me at Christmas at the Cabin? The Cabin began opening up on the third weekend of October as well, at the request many years ago by the Festival committee who wanted Christmas at the Cabin to be a part of the Festival. And so it is! And continues to be. It is four miles west of town on the Cave Road, and worth the side trip!

AND ARE WE READY FOR SOME FOOTBALL!?!?

Wow! the answer seems to be ‘YES!’

As I write this, the Hillsboro Indians are ranked 6th in their division in the state rankings and Paint Valley is ranked number 2! How exciting is that!??

AAAnd almost more exciting: Greenfield McClain is back in the winning business after a very long losing time. Congrats to all of the teams and their coaches. Being a McClain grad and also a big fan of former coach Paul Orr, it is very satisfying to see Coach Orr’s grandson, Jake Orr Zoty, a former McClain standout player, return to his home school to turn the program around! Mega Congrats!

If you have read much in the Happenings, you know I am pretty much a sports junkie –especially football– so naturally I must mention The Buckeyes! “O-H-I-OOOOOOOO!” (the new O-H-I-O yell that I learned from our campers at our CAMP this summer).

Also great to see Boonie’s and my Ohio University Bobcats continuing in their winning ways. I had a tough time a few weeks ago when OU was playing Cincinnati. I’m so happy for Luke Fickle to have a chance with the head coaching job there after holding together the Ohio State program during a very difficult time. (I had a hard time knowing who to root for!)

And, Oh my goodness, even both the Browns and the Bengals are hot! Yaaaay! Yes, we are ready for some football!

OUR GRATITUDE AND ADMIRATION

Thanks to Dave Shoemaker for another entertaining article in this issue of the "Happenings in the Hills". Dave is well known in this area to many reading this because of his years of teaching and coaching at both Greenfield McClain and at Paint Valley. He is a clever writer, and do not be surprised to see his words again in future issues of the Happenings. I am happy to have him as part of my "Happenings team!"

Mike Seely, of Seely Portraits of Greenfield, has again provided us with a great cover photo for the Happenings. You may see more of his beautiful photography at his web page: www.seelyportraits.com. Mike does drone photos of area farms and businesses and he makes himself available when possible to photograph your next big event, too. Of course, he does portrait photos by appointment at his studio on Jefferson Street in Greenfield. Call (937) 981-3013.

TOP 10 HALLOWEEN COSTUMES FOR 2018

by Dave Shoemaker

Here Are Your Top 10 Kid Halloween Costumes for 2018! Well, According To Me.

Yes kids, our crack staff here at Shoe: Untied is here for you once again. We've scoured the worldwide interweb to come up with the Top 10 2018 children's Halloween costumes for you, our loyal readers. We have ranked said costumes from 10 to 1, because we're here for you. Let us commence . . .

#10 – Gandhi

Nothing like dressing your kid up as the symbol for India's independence, amirite? Good call.

#9 – Pillsbury Doughboy

Are you calling your kid fat? Perhaps. But it's OK. Totally worth it.

#8 – Hannibal Lecter

Because dressing your kid up as a fictional movie serial killer is always a great idea.

#7 – A Taco

Because why the hell not? Tacos be tasty.

#6 – Walter White & Jesse Pinkman

Because you're willing to shave your kid's head, right? Right? LOVED Breaking Bad.

#4 – Wilson the Volleyball

#2 – The Dude

Any avid reader of this site know I'm a fan of The Big Lebowski, so I am thusly a fan of this costume. Rock on, dude.

#5 – Old Woman

Simple but effective. Very effective. Also disturbing as hell.

#3 – Dwight Schrute

If you're not a fan of The Office you're not a fan of mine and you can kiss my ass. That is all.

#1 – Glowstick Boy

Shoot me, but I love me some Glowstick boy. Cannot help myself.

He's Back and Better than Ever!

BOONIE The Magician

Looking for something to add some fun to your next special occasion? Think about BOONIE, THE MAGICIAN! From birthday parties to corporate events, Boonie can handle it – has many times and will again!

Here, see Boonie as he entertained at all of the Dakotas Restaurants (Corporate-wide) for their Kid's Nights.

37TH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS AT THE CABIN!

Who would have ever thought all those years ago that the little one weekend craft show would turn into what it has? Now it lasts nearly two months, and it is open daily, except Mondays, from October 19th through December 9th, with special Thanksgiving evening hours of 4pm–9pm. (Regular hours are Tuesday through Saturday 10am–5pm and Sundays 1pm–5pm.) The cabin features all hand-crafted wares all of the highest quality and they are all priced right!

Artisans come from all over the USA, and there are gift items for everyone in the family available as well as some really special Christmas decorations. It is located on the Cave Road, just off of US Route 50, four miles west of Bainbridge, and midway between Chillicothe and Hillsboro. Yes it is really in an authentic old log cabin, and if you ask, Janny will tell you some of the interesting history of this special place! Y'all come! You'll be glad you did.

Some folks say they haven't had their Christmas till they've had at least one visit to "The Cabin."
